WSWA EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM NOW ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS

Applications for Two Scholarships are Open Until May 31, 2023

WASHINGTON, D.C., 03/15/2023 – Wine & Spirits Wholesalers of America (WSWA) announced today that the WSWA Educational Foundation – the charitable arm of Wine & Spirits Wholesalers of America (WSWA) – college scholarship program for the 2023-2024 academic year is now accepting applications. The Foundation offers two scholarships: The WSWA Educational Foundation Scholarship and the Robert Qualls Scholarship.

The WSWA Educational Foundation Scholarship provides 50 scholarships (each $2,000) exclusively to WSWA-member employees' children going to college, community college, or trade school.

The Robert Qualls Scholarship provides four scholarships (each $5,000) to beverage alcohol suppliers, wholesalers, and retailers – and their children – that meet the certain requirements.

WSWA wholesaler-member companies please share this information with your HR department to help spread the word about this amazing opportunity only offered to WSWA-member employees. Students can apply online until May 31, 2023. More information can be found via the following link: www.wswa.org/scholarships.

Eligibility requirements vary for each program, so please read the details of each to determine which is right for you. Students that are eligible for both scholarships are welcome to apply for each program but need to complete two separate applications.

If you have further questions, please send an email to collegescholarship@wswa.org.

About Wine & Spirits Wholesalers of America

WSWA is the national trade association representing the distribution tier of the wine and spirits industry, dedicated to advancing the interests and independence of distributors and brokers of wine and spirits. Founded in 1943, WSWA has more than 380 member companies in 50 states and the District of Columbia, and its members distribute more than 80 percent of all wine and spirits sold at wholesale in the United States.
